ACM Nominee Jason Aldean To Honor Breast Cancer Survivors Throughout 2016 We Were Here Tour

Press Release Courtesy of Jason Aldean

Nashville, TN — February 08, 2016 — ACM "Entertainer of the Year" nominee Jason Aldean will continue his partnership with Susan G. Komen for his 2016 WE WERE HERE TOUR, offering fans a special opportunity to honor breast cancer survivors. On select dates over the course of the tour, Aldean will surprise survivors nominated through essay submissions with concert tickets and VIP backstage access to the concert of their choice. Jason Aldean will be performing in Fayetteville, NC on Saturday, February 20, 2016.

To enter the VIP Experience & Meet-And-Greet Contest, fans can share their story of survivorship through 11:59 p.m. Sunday, February 14, 2016. Click here to enter or visit www.komen.org/jasonaldean.

The three-time reigning ACM "Male Vocalist of the Year" continues one of "2016's Hottest Tours" (Rolling Stone) in the US next weekend before taking his headlining tour overseas for his first-ever trip to Australia. About Susan G. Komen® North Carolina Triangle to Coast

Susan G. Komen is the world's largest breast cancer organization, funding more breast cancer research than any other nonprofit while providing real-time help to those facing the disease. Komen was founded by Nancy G. Brinker, who promised her sister, Susan G. Komen, that she would end the disease that claimed Suzy's life. Komen NCTC is working to better the lives of those facing breast cancer in the local community. Through events like the Komen Triangle Race for the Cure®, the Komen Wilmington Race for the Cure® and the Finding Solutions Through Science, Scholars and Survivors Luncheon, Komen NCTC has invested $14 million in community breast health programs in 29 counties in central and eastern North Carolina and has helped contribute to the more than $800 million invested globally in research.
